A registered Breeder's Prefix may be transferred with the approval of the North Australian Canine Association Inc. Such approvals will normally be granted only:

- a. From one member of a family to another member of that family, eg. Mother to daughter.
- b. From joint ownership to single ownership where one of the joint owners surrenders all interest to the other party.
- c. From single ownership to joint ownership where the original owner also enters into joint membership with another member.

Please note: If you own a breeder's prefix in a single name then all your bitches that you intend to breed with must also be in single ownership.
If you own a breeder's prefix in joint names than all bitches that you intend to breed with must also be in joint ownership.

Declaration: To be completed by the present owner.

I/We the present owners of the Breeder's Prefix wish to transfer the Prefix because:
